

Our sexual health services are CONFIDENTIAL

This means that we won't tell anyone you have been to see us, including parents/carers, partners or your GP.

In rare circumstances, we may need to break confidentiality and share some details of your visit.

We would only do this if we felt you or someone else was at risk of serious harm, and we would always try to talk to you about this first.