

Free PrEP

Available from your local sexual health service

PrEP (pre-exposure prophylaxis) is a tablet taken by HIV-negative people that reduces the risk of getting HIV.

OpenClinic Sexual Health Services can offer free PrEP to anyone from a community or group that is most at risk of HIV, or people who have sex with people from those networks.

Visit www.openclinic.org.uk for more information about your local NHS sexual health services.